LEGEND ● Highlights ● Silver Films ● Exhibitions ● Arts on the Move ● In Conjunction * Workshop

Silver Arts advocates the meaningful possibilities seniors have in the arts.

Organised by the National Arts Council since 2012, Silver Arts is an annual festival dedicated to celebrating seniors and creative ageing. The festival presents collaborations between artists, arts organisations and community partners to foster the arts into the lifestyles of seniors. From performances to workshops, seniors can showcase their creative talents through co-created content or learn a new skill, enhancing their overall well-being. The festival offers opportunities for seniors to share their stories that shape our collective memories, and forge stronger inter-generational understanding.

Into its seventh edition, this year's festival will take place over four weeks from 6 to 30 September island-wide. With an extensive line-up of arts programmes and activities, there will be something for everyone. Bring your parents, grandparents, family to enjoy and experience this year's festival offerings!

Konsert Gurindam Jiwa (Music of the Soul)

Music Director Syafiqah 'Adha Sallehin
Producer Saiful Amri

Ayuh mengenang lagu-lagu tema popular dari filem-filem Melayu klasik dan muzik oleh komposer, penggubah dan ahli muzik terkenal Wandly Yazid. Konsert satu jam ini menayangkan petikan dari filem-filem yang diminati ramai termasuk Gurindam Jiwa. Karya-karya muzik ikoniknya dipersembahkan secara langsung oleh orkestra Angklung melibatkan 70 pelajar dan guru-guru bersara, dan turut menampilkan R Ismail, Julie Sudiro dan ramai lagi.

It's time to reminisce the popular theme songs from classic Malay films and music by acclaimed composer, arranger and musician Wandly Yazid. This one-hour concert will feature excerpts from well-loved films including Gurindam Jiwa and clips on Wandly Yazid's music journey.

A 70-strong Angklung orchestra comprising school students and retired teachers will perform alongside award-winning Angklung maestro Faridah H A Jamal and principal pianist Saedah Samat-Alkaff, with performances by R Ismail, Julie Sudiro and more. Directed by emerging music phenom Syafiqah 'Adha Sallehin.

丽的呼声—鼎艺与美香同行 Reliving Rediffusion with Ding Yi

by Ding Yi Music Company

鼎艺团联同前播音员张美香将在舞台上重现丽的呼声电台节目，除了有凤飞飞、邓丽君和费玉清等80年代歌手的经典曲目的演奏外，本地“讲古大师”李大傻的入室弟子李瑞霞也将讲述“十兄弟”的故事，由鼎艺团现场配乐。

Relive the Rediffusion radio show with Ding Yi and former radio presenter Chang Mei Hsiang on stage. Sway along to evergreens by popular singers in the '80s including Fong Fei Fei, Teresa Teng and Fei Yu-Ching. Local famous storyteller Lee Dai Soh's female disciple Lee Swee Har will also tell the story of Ten Brothers (十兄弟) with live music performed by Ding Yi.

About Ding Yi Music Company

Established in 2007, Ding Yi is recognised as one of Singapore's most prodigious Chinese chamber music ensemble with a vast repertoire ranging from traditional Chinese music to contemporary and cross-genre works.

“龟兔赛跑”是个家喻户晓的寓言故事，版本众多。一对祖孙各自不认同对方所说的故事：一边执着于故事的重要性，而另一边则认为故事只是故事罢了。最后会有定论吗？人生中面对的许多抉择能够简单分出对错吗？

这部温馨的戏剧作品将带您重温陪着我们一起长大的寓言故事，让您重新考虑它们的含义。

The Tortoise and the Hare is a well-known folk story with many different versions. A grandmother and her grandson collide with each other over the stories that each tells, one championing the importance of stories and the other questioning the impact stories can have. Will they ever agree?

Embark on a journey to revisit familiar tales that we grew up with, question what they mean, and expect surprises as well as an alternate ending or two in this heartwarming theatre performance.

SILVER FILMS

Silver Films presents a selection of heartwarming films on living life to the fullest and holding our loved ones close to us.

SINGAPORE SILVER SHORTS 2018

Singapore Silver Shorts includes two new commissions — Love in a Convenience Store by Png Zhen Yu and New Bike by Kannan Vijayakumar — that will make their world premiere at the festival. You will also get to watch Eric Khoo's Cinema, Ng Xinmin's Longevity Peach and Ellie Ngim's Run, Chicken, Run, a total of five shorts in one screening.

Approximate runtime is 90mins.

再爱便利店 Love in a Convenience Store

by Png Zhen Yu

15min • Mandarin and Hokkien, with English and Chinese subtitles

An elderly couple reignites their romance at an unlikely place – a convenience store. This is a light-hearted drama comedy starring veteran actors Marcus Chin and Goh Guat Kian.

About the Director

Zhen Yu is a film student from NTU's School of Art, Design and Media and has created works such as Reunion Dinner which won Best Editing at the 2017 National Youth Film Awards.

Commissioned by the National Arts Council for Silver Arts 2018.

புது வண்டி New Bike

by Kannan Vijayakumar

15min • Tamil, with English and Chinese subtitles

Selvam, a jaded 65-year-old retired bank officer feels isolated after scrapping his car which was his only companion. After a few stumbles to fill this void, Selvam finds a new lease of life when he makes the best out of an unlikely birthday present – an electric scooter.

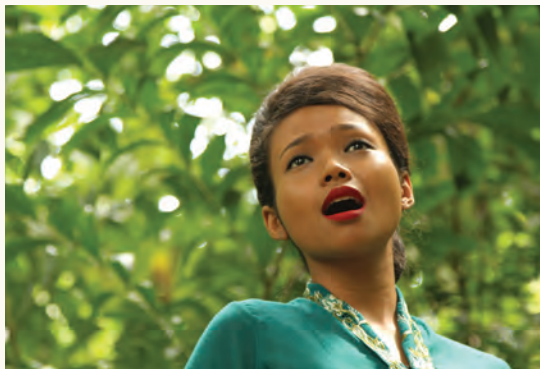

About the Director

Kannan Vijayakumar has directed, written and creative produced several Mediacorp Vasantham dramas, short films and commercials.

Commissioned by the National Arts Council for Silver Arts 2018.

Cinema

by Eric Khoo

19min • Malay, with English and Chinese subtitles

Cinema is a nostalgic short film about the golden age of Singapore film in the 1950s, which brought together a multicultural clout of Chinese producers, Indian technicians and Malay creatives. Featuring actress Nadiah M. Din, this short film pays homage to the classic Pontianak, which jump-started the Southeast Asian horror genre.

Cinema is one of the seven short films in the 7 Letters anthology produced in 2015 in celebration of SG50.

About the Director

Eric Khoo is a Cultural Medallion recipient and award-winning filmmaker who was the first Singaporean to have his films invited to major film festivals such as Berlin, Venice and Cannes.

寿桃 Longevity Peach

by Ng Xinmin

12min • English and Mandarin, with English and Chinese subtitles

Claire is left in the care of her grandmother during her school holidays, but they struggle to communicate due to language barriers. However, Claire eventually learns Teochew to bridge the gap and comes to embrace her cultural roots.

About the Director

Capturing stories that are neglected in our daily lives are what Ng Xinmin lives for. Her passion lies in heartfelt homely films as she feels that such films are neglected by the audience of this age.

鸡飞狗走 Run, Chicken, Run

by Ellie Ngim

19min • Mandarin, with English and Chinese subtitles

“No matter how far or fast you run, I will always catch you!” In this heartwarming short film, a father and daughter pair keep up an annual Chinese New Year tradition – playing tag while dressed in animal costumes. Will the dog catch the chick in time for their reunion dinner?

About the Director

Nominated Directing Fellow in the Busan Asian Film Academy 2015, Ellie is an award-winning Film and TVC director.

SILVER FEATURES

Silver Features brings to you five different feature films from Singapore, China, Malaysia and Taiwan covering the themes of family, relationships, and reconciliation.

Seniman Bujang Lapok

by P Ramlee

1961 | Comedy | 120min | PG
Malay, with English and Chinese subtitles

P Ramlee classic Seniman Bujang Lapok is a comedy that follows Ramli, Aziz and Sudin—the eponymous “bujang lapok”, or cruddy bachelors—on their misadventures living in a crowded long house and auditioning at the Jalan Ampas film studio in a bid to become movie stars. Much to the chagrin of the director, the Malay Film Productions employs them despite their inexperience and total ignorance of the film industry.

The popular film is a satirical take on the Malay-language film industry and the Malay community in the 1950s and 1960s.

相爱相亲 Love Education

by Sylvia Chang

2017 | Drama | 121 min | PG
Mandarin, with English and Chinese subtitles

In this award-winning family drama, Mother (Sylvia Chang) plans to relocate Grandpa’s grave from the countryside to the city where he can be re-buried with Grandma. However, her decision sparks a conflict with Grandpa’s first wife, Nana, who fights rigorously to stop the move.

At first, caught between her mother and Nana, Weiwei is indifferent, turning the conflict into a sensational story broadcasted by her television company. But after spending time with Nana, Weiwei gains a new understanding of life. How will these three women of different generations negotiate with each other while following their hearts?

生生 Sen Sen

by Bon An

2017 | Drama | 111 min | PG
Mandarin, with English and Chinese subtitles

Sen Sen, a young boy struggling to come to terms with the death of his elder brother, discovers that his brother had been following an online webcast, “Live more than 100 days!” Through his brother’s mobile phone, Sen Sen befriends the star of the webcast, Granny Lili (Hong Kong actress Nina Paw), who has been diagnosed with stage four lung cancer but is determined to outlive the doctor’s prognosis.

Granny Lili seizes each day with a zest that infects Sen Sen, and the two became fast friends as they embark on a journey in life’s lessons together.

我来自纽约2:当我们在一起 The Kid from the Big Apple 2: Before We Forget

by Jess Teong

2017 | Drama/Comedy | 115 min | PG
Mandarin, with English and Chinese subtitles

After forming a close bond with his New York-based granddaughter Sarah (as told in well-received prequel The Kid from the Big Apple, Ah Gen (Hong Kong action star, Ti Lung) finds himself up against another obstacle in the way of his and his family’s happily-ever-after. Before We Forget tells the heartwarming story of how Sarah and her family surround Ah Gen with love and support, resolving to face new challenges together bravely.

情牵拉面茶 Ramen Teh

by Eric Khoo

2018 | Drama | 90 min | PG
English, Mandarin, Cantonese, Japanese, with English and Chinese subtitles

Masato is a young ramen chef in the city of Takasaki in Japan. After the sudden death of his emotionally distant father, he chances upon a red notebook left behind by his Singaporean mother who passed away when he was just ten years old. Acting on a hunch, Masato takes off for Singapore with the notebook, where he discovers that his grandmother Madam Lee is still alive, and that she holds the key to the tender yet turbulent love story of his parents.

EXHIBITIONS

Silver Arts Exhibition

National Library Board, The Plaza | 15 – 30 Sep

Join us at the Silver Arts Exhibition to view a selection of works created by senior participants from five community arts projects (CAPs) that were facilitated by a group of artists.

magic mARkers

Artists: Lee Sze Chin, Woon Tien Wei, and Nigel Chan

In this digital art project, senior participants were enabled with augmented and virtual reality tools to (re)present and create their own narratives about a place of their childhood or youth. Visit this exhibition to view their intimate stories of forgotten places in Singapore.

About Lee Sze Chin

Sze Chin is an artist, art educator and art therapist whose works often combine the use of video, photography and performance to recreate experiences that question concepts of memory and time.

About Woon Tien Wei

Tien Wei is an artist and curator whose work focuses on cultural policies, collectivity in art, community engagement, land contestation, urban legends and social movements.

About Nigel Chen

Nigel is keen to explore creative expression in augmented reality and the space-time relationship between the creators and their audiences. He brings to the team his expertise in inventing, IT research and development.

Mapping Our Lives

Artist: Michael Lee

Artist Michael Lee led a group of seniors to create personal maps and diagrams that were inspired by their significant life events, goals and achievements. This exhibition showcases a creative format through which seniors are able to share their life stories with others.

About Michael Lee

Michael Lee has 13 years of experience as an artist and curator and is currently a part-time lecturer in research and writing in Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts and LASALLE College of the Arts.

Pillow Dreams

Artist: Stellah Lim

Senior participants learnt to use plaster to capture their personal dreams and hopes onto three-dimensional sculptural pillows. Visit the exhibition to find out more about the journey and inspiration behind their creations.

About Stellah Lim

Stellah Lim is a visual artist who uses various art forms such as sculpture and installation to translate her experiences and reality.

Words of My Youth

Artists: Sheila Wee with Wong Swee Yeap, Karen Lee, Dolly Leow and Nancy Leppard

Storyteller Sheila Wee and her team led senior participants to recall their knowledge of Chinese dialect rhymes and stories that have been passed down through the generations, as well as memories of life in times gone by, through basic story learning and telling techniques. The exhibition will showcase some of the rhymes collected by the seniors.

About Sheila Wee

Sheila Wee has been a full time professional storyteller for 19 years. Her work includes both local and international performances and storytelling skills and storytelling applications workshops for all ages.

Kampung Admiralty, Community Plaza | 6 – 12 Sep

It's a Happy, Happy World!

Artists: Jeffrey Tan and Vincent Yong

This is an intergenerational project that explores happiness through the eyes of both youths and seniors from NTUC Health Active Ageing Hub (Kampung Admiralty). Together, they underwent a series of storytelling and creative movement workshops and created a unique, 100-mirror installation that invites you to come and share your own thoughts on what makes a happy, happy world.

About Jeffrey Tan

Jeffrey Tan is a theatre director, drama educator who has worked with different communities from children, youth and seniors.

About Vincent Yong

Vincent Yong is a somatic artist who bridges the science and art of movement and perception for personal healing and social integration.

SPARKS! Art Wellness Exhibition

A joint initiative by the Agency for Integrated Care and the National Arts Council, this exhibition showcases art projects that were created by 100 nursing home residents in collaboration with 10 artists over 90 hours of dedication under an arts residency pilot.

About Agency for Integrated Care (AIC)

The Agency for Integrated Care seeks to create a vibrant Care Community enabling people to live well and age gracefully. AIC coordinates and facilitates efforts in care integration to achieve the best care outcomes for their clients. AIC also enables stakeholders to raise the quality of care, and also enhance collaboration by working with health and social care providers to increase services to support the ageing population.

SEMINAR

Arts in Eldercare Seminar 2018

The Arts in Eldercare Seminar is an annual platform bringing together social and healthcare practitioners, artists, community leaders and funders to advocate the value of the arts for seniors. This year, the platform will cover topics around digital approaches in engaging seniors through the arts, and integrating the arts in residential and community care settings.

The 2-day Seminar will highlight innovative programme models from Singapore, Japan, South Korea, and the United Kingdom, and provide hands-on learning opportunities for artists and social and healthcare practitioners.

Date Your Grandparents

Looking for an activity to do with your grandparents?

Look no further as Silver Arts 2018 offers a suite of programmes and activities for both of you! Breeze through an exhibition by seniors and artists, view creative artworks inspired by stories of their past and present, work on a craft activity together, or travel back to the yesteryears and enjoy performances by both seniors and the young, or sing-a-long to the rolling good times.

With more than 35 programmes in different languages and dialects, you are bound to find one that you, your parents and grandparents will enjoy. Make it the most wonderful outing you have together! Who knows, this might be the start of something more for you and your grandparents in their silver years.
